

Swingo!

Tune:- The Rakes of Mallow.

Introduction.

All join hands and circle left again,
Halfway round and the other way back again,
When you're home you all swing round;
Swing your honey round and round.
Swing her up and swing her down,
Swing her all around the town;
Swing her high and swing her low,
Swing your little gal in calico.

Figure.

(Chanted - not sung.)

First couple out and circle four,
Circle four around that floor:
Swingo-o-o-o-o.....!
Now swing your lambie round and round,
Kick her shins and knock her down:
On to the next and don't get mixed,
Add two to four and circle six:
Swingo-o-o-, swingo-o-o-!
Swing your baby high and low,
Swing your gal in calico;
Hurry up boys and don't be late,
Add two to six and circle eight:
Swingo-o-o-, swingo-o-o-, swingo-o-o-;
Swing that lady, she's your own,
Swing her round and take her home;
All promenade your honey home.

--- Repeat figure with other couples.

Break.

None -- hit 'em again while they're still dizzy!

EXPLANATION

Swingo = swing the next lady on your left; the caller should hold the 'o-o-o-' for at least two bars -- or until the victims yell 'uncle'!
